

Having all of our family, friends, and even our dogs, celebrate the best day ever with us was such an incredible gift. Being able to have fourteen of my closest friends as bridesmaids was icing on the cake.

Our wedding coordinator, Jenifour Jones of Go Get It Events, was by my side throughout the wedding process, making our wedding creative, classy and unique. She even hired Louisville Photo Booth, which was a fabulous hit at the reception leaving us with memories for years to come.
